Dear Sir:

I am enclosing, herewith, the photographs
which we had taken of the two Bactrian nickel coins.
There is no contemporary historical information about the rulers.

On the attached sheet is the analysis of one of the ^{Euthydemus}~~Agathocles~~ coins, made some years ago.

Through a misunderstanding, the bill was sent to you two or three days in advance.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

I am herewith sending you prints of the Belgian 20 franc pieces. I also included the Greek and Luxembourg coins, which I found here. I could not remember whether we had already made photographs of these. You spoke about giving us the Luxembourg coin if we did not have it. With your permission, I am keeping this with the Belgian coins for our collection.

Dear Sir:

We understand that you are interested in placing among your exhibits a platinum replica of the Herbert Hoover Presidential Medal and also a palladium medal of Maurits Leefson.

We are most happy to co-operate with you in this respect, and we are sending you herewith the above-mentioned medals for exhibition by your Society.

So that there will be no misunderstanding concerning these medals, we confirm that they are being lent to you by the International Nickel Company, whose title thereto must be preserved, and we are to have the right to their return upon reasonable notice to you.

If we desire to make use of these medals at any time, we understand that we may withdraw them promptly and may again return them to you as above noted.

Very truly yours,

R. E. Case.

Dear Mr. Wood:

I am enclosing two copies of the list of nickel bearing and pure nickel coins of which I spoke to you by phone during the past week. This list was sent to us from our Paris office. It seems that Mr. R. Castel, 3 rue Nobel, Paris (18e) France, who has had occasion to pick up some coins for our Company, requested our Paris office to forward the list to New York to see what could be done in the way of assisting him in securing the coins listed. He would like to have the list passed to reliable New York coin dealers who would be willing to take this odd lot business. Mr. Castel wants one coin each of those shown on the list. Our Paris office suggests that any New York dealers that care to handle the business should communicate with Mr. Castel direct.

Will you please look the list over and see in what way you can give me some help. Also, I would like a list of reputable coin dealers to whom I might turn in the event it may be necessary. Whatever you can do will be very much appreciated by me and by our Paris office as well.

Yours very truly,

Development and Research Department

P.S. Indications are that I will be in the City for the July meeting of the Club at the Building Trades Building. If so, I will see you at that time.

Dear Mr. Case:

I have carefully looked over the list of coins wanted by Mr. Castel and very much doubt if any to speak of can be picked up in this country, with possibly the exception of the Costa Rica and Cuba pieces as well as the United States. You might, however, write to some of the dealers on the enclosed list. Nearly all of the foreign coins can be more readily picked up for probably less money from Spink and Son, 5, 6 & 7 King St. St. James's, S. W. 1, London, England, who specialize in new issues and who have many of these coins. It is in fact from them that we get such coins. Trusting to see you at the club on Friday, I remain

Dear Mr. Wood,

I very much appreciate your letter of July 12th, in reply to mine of July 3--regarding coins for Monsieur R. Castel.

I have transferred the information contained in your letter to our Paris office, giving them the source of my information, so that it may be that possibly you will be hearing from them direct on matters having to do with numismatics.
